

Spinderella Studios: RELEASE OF LIABILITY

I, _____, acknowledge that the activities related to private lessons, private parties, and group class sessions provided by or on behalf of Marisa Oka or instructors directed thereby are potentially hazardous. I assume all risk and responsibility for personal injury during or after all class sessions, private parties, and private lessons. I assume all responsibility for any and all property damage occurring during any and all class sessions, private parties, and private lessons. I further waive all right and release the facility and all associated owners or management companies related to said facility (or facilities) in which every class or private party is conducted (i.e. studio or private home) from all responsibility related to any injury or damage sustained during or after any and all classes and/or private parties. I also acknowledge that any and all activities I partake in during the aforementioned sessions are completely voluntary and that I can and should choose to decline any activities that I determine could be harmful or cause any personal or bodily injury. Lastly, I acknowledge that I am over 18 years of age, acting on my own accord and not under the influence of drugs or alcohol at the time of signing. If I am under 18 years of age, an addendum of consent will be provided and signed by my parent/legal guardian along with this release of liability.
